Santa made his annual visit to the WHSA December 23.

Santa spent an hour-and-a-half chatting with the children and giving out posters and candy. The plump visitor took a few minutes out of his busy December schedule to feed the harbor seal, and then sprang to his sleigh and headed home to rest up for his big night. After visiting with Santa, some of the children completed a Count the Animals activity sheet. Seven-year-old Ryan had the most correct answers, followed closely by Sarah. Honorable mention goes to Chloe, Hadley, Michael, Armaan, and Martin.
